THE LAST SS/AMX

"The Last Hurst SS/AMX Resurfaces After Decades in a Shipping Container" is the title of an article in a recent issue of Muscle Car Review Magazine.

It is the story of Arizonian Dan Curtis coming across the last SS/AMX built, and purchasing it with plans of restoring it soon.

Dan plans to bring the car to the November AMC Car Show in Vegas, as is, before starting the restoration.

PLAYMATE AMX REPORT

In the month of June, I had an enjoyable trip to the San Jose area for a car show called the Coyote Creek Concourse. I convoyed with two other friends with car trailers and all three of us stayed Friday night at the home of a friend.

Being that I have little experience backing up my trailer, it was fun backing up several hundred yards around a bend in the driveway into position.

On Saturday morning our group of four arrived early at the home of a gentleman who has a California license plate collection of over 500 plates. After several hours of education on plate history, we were on to our next stop, a local car show in Monterey.

After a brief stroll through the lineup of cars we moved to the city of Carmel for lunch at an interesting car themed restaurant. Before heading home, we stopped at a motorcycle museum nearby which housed many interesting items.

The car show itself was on Sunday. Everybody was up, showered, and full of coffee by 6am when we hit the road. Rolling through Gilroy, our noses confirmed we were passing through the garlic capital of the world.

We were some of the first arrivals at the show. There was a little bit of the typical confusion as the event got itself organized and into motion. Finally, everybody had their car out of the trailers and onto the show field. It was a nice sunny day, a tad too warm if you ask me.

The pink Playmate AMX was warmly received and spectators loved the story and history of the car. By the end of the day the pink AMX known as Angelia had won 3rd place and drove up in front of the stage to receive the award.

I had to work on Monday so after loading up I had to get on the road and head south to home. I'm looking forward to the upcoming shows that the pink AMX is signed up for. The Santa Maria AMC Show, the Ironstone Concourse, and two shows in Las Vegas.

2019 Las Vegas AMC Reunion

From the current newsletter of the Las Vegas club putting on the AMC show in November. Mark..

For those of you who haven't heard the news, the 2019 Las Vegas AMC Reunion will be held on November 8-9 at the Railroad Pass Hotel & Casino (www.railroadpass.com).

The "Pass" will be an outstanding venue for the show. We will have a large and secure fully paved show field. All the rooms were remodeled within the last two years. They also offer great room rates, excellent lighting and security, outstanding cooperation from hotel management and staff and more. They also have a new travel center. Following the show, dinner will be in Box Car Buffet.

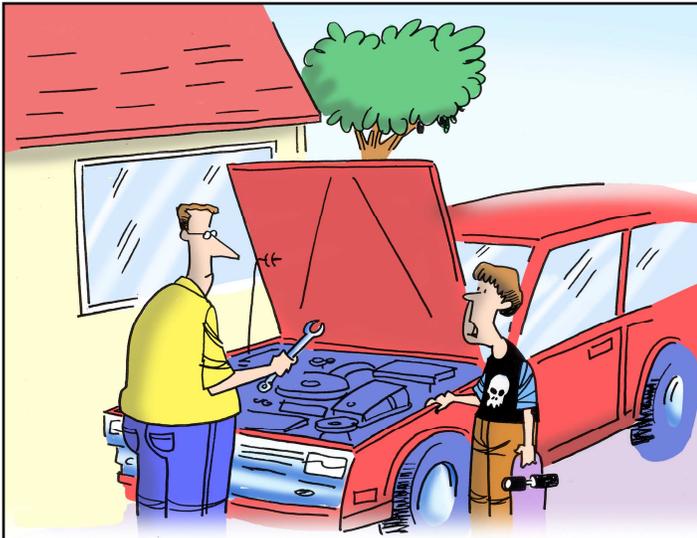

The Friday tour will be to see the classic car collection of Richie Clyne in Las Vegas (www.clynescars.com).

Clyne is the creator of the Las Vegas Motor Speedway and a member of the Southern Nevada Sports Hall of Fame. The collection is located 30 miles from Railroad Pass. Departure time from Railroad Pass TBA. After returning from the tour the Friday BBQ will again be at Bicentennial Park, one of the largest and nicest parks in Boulder City.

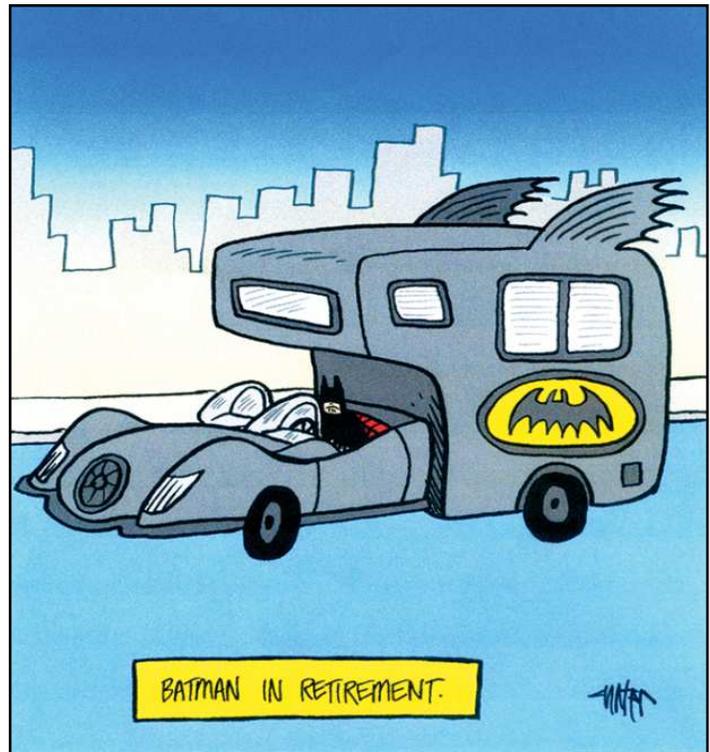

The park features plenty of parking for our cars, a gazebo, clean restrooms and playground for the kids. We will also have use of the grill and picnic tables. The BBQ is hosted by the Southern Nevada AMC Club and is free to show participants and invited guests.

As more details on both the show and Friday schedule of events become available, they will be posted via email, on the AMC Forum and on over 30 AMC Facebook sites.

For more information, contact club President Larry Daum (mramc@risebroadband.net or 775-513-8112). We'll see you in November. VEGAS BABY!
